

8.3.1. General Authority.

The Board, for the benefit of the Subdivision and the Owners, shall enforce the provisions of the Governing Documents and shall have all powers and authority granted to the Board or the Association under the Homeowners Association Act and this Declaration which are not expressly subject to the approval of the Owners.